

A vintage color postcard featuring a panoramic view of Reading, England. In the foreground, a large, ornate red brick building with a prominent clock tower on the left is identified as the Town Hall. To its right stands the Gothic Revival St. Lawrence's Church, characterized by its tall, dark spires. The scene is set in a town square with a statue on a pedestal, a horse-drawn carriage, and several figures walking or standing. The background shows more of the town's architecture under a bright, slightly cloudy sky.
